The reports, which will be made the basis for further representations at Tokyo, will be made public today and tomorrow. [Page 1.] A reported insult to the American flag by Japanese troops at Wuhu the day after the attacks drew representations from the United States Consul General in Shanghai. [Follows the above.] Japanese Army and Navy Omcers, in a three-hour talk, gave to United States Ambassador Grew, in Tokyo, a detailed account of their inquiry into the Yangtze incident. They placed the chief blame on isolated forces trying to hamper the Chinese retreat. They admitted firing by their launches on Chinese quitting an American vessel.
